NARRATIVE:

Grubbs has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19 and includes first degree burglary, possession marijuana for sale, driving under the influence of alcohol/drugs, obstruction, evading peace officer: disregard for safety, parole violations, and violation of supervised release. Grubbs has served three prison terms. He was released most recently, after serving a three year prison term, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 11/13/2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2012 after Grubbs absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Grubbs qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading peace officer: disregard for safety, is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
